

MEMBERSHIP FEE SCHEDULE
OF THE NATIONAL CHAMBER OF DUAL-USE AND DEFENCE SOLUTIONS
“POLISH DUAL USE CHAMBER” (PIDU)

§1

Entry Fee

1. A one-time entry fee for new members of the Chamber shall amount to PLN 1,000 (in words: one thousand zlotys).
2. The entry fee shall be payable as a one-time payment, in accordance with the rules set out in the resolution of the Management Board on determining the amount of the entry fee and membership fees.
3. The entry fee shall be non-refundable.

Basic Principles for Determining the Membership Fee

1. The basis for determining the amount of the membership fee shall be the value of annual revenues (turnover) from the sale of goods and services generated by a member of the Chamber in the last full financial year preceding the date of submission of the application for admission to the Chamber.
2. For the purposes of this schedule, “revenues” shall mean revenues from the sale of goods and services generated by a member of the Chamber in a given financial year, as reflected in financial statements or other accounting documents prepared in accordance with applicable laws.
3. A member of the Chamber shall be obliged to provide the Chamber with information on the amount of revenues generated in a given financial year for the purpose of determining the membership fee applicable in the following calendar year.
4. The information referred to in paragraph 2 shall be provided to the Chamber no later than 30 September of each year, unless the Management Board decides otherwise (applies to continuation of membership).
5. In the event that a member of the Chamber fails to provide information on the amount of revenues within the time limit specified in paragraph 3, the membership fee for the following calendar year shall be determined at a level corresponding to the fee applicable to that member in the previous year.
6. Upon obtaining information on the actual amount of a member’s revenues, the Management Board shall be entitled to make an appropriate adjustment to the membership fee and to charge the difference between the fee due and the fee previously charged.
7. In the event that a member of the Chamber fails to provide the information referred to in paragraph 3 despite two requests issued by the Chamber, the Management Board may deem such conduct a breach of the member’s obligations and take measures provided for in the Statute, in particular consider initiating a procedure for expulsion of the member from the Chamber in accordance with the provisions of the Statute.

8. In justified cases, in particular where activities related to the dual-use or defence sector constitute a distinct part of a member's business and are conducted or accounted for in a manner allowing their identification, the Management Board may decide to determine the membership fee based on revenues generated from that part of the business.

§5

Newly Established Entities

1. In the case of entities established less than one full financial year prior to the submission of the application for admission to the Chamber, the Management Board shall determine the amount of the membership fee on an individual basis.
2. In determining the fee, the Management Board shall, in particular, take into account:
 - the planned scale of the entity's business activities;
 - the value of assets or the balance sheet total;

2. Membership fees paid shall be non-refundable, in particular in the event of termination of membership in the Chamber.

3. A declaration of resignation from membership in the Chamber for a given calendar year shall be submitted no later than 31 March of that year (i.e., where a declaration of resignation is submitted by 31 March of year “n”, the Chamber shall not charge a membership fee for year “n”). If the resignation is submitted at a later date, the Chamber shall be entitled to charge the membership fee on a pro rata basis for the period from the beginning of the calendar year until the receipt of the resignation declaration. The basis for such calculation shall be the amount of the membership fee charged for the preceding year.
